

File #

Duxbury Clipper

Vol. XLIII No. 43

Wednesday, March 8, 1995

Duxbury, MA 02332

Price 50¢

Peggy and Dennis Oberholzer enjoy the festivities with Peter Alliare at last Saturday's party at the Art Complex held to support the Alden Library Project.

Photo by Fran Nichols

Duxbury Reporter
March 8, 1995

FRANK
&
ERNEST

Frank and Ernest were most impressed by the "It's Long Overdue" reception at the art complex Saturday night to boost the library project. Kathy Deniston and Billie Perry were the perfect hosts and the stars were out, too. Billie's husband, Joe Perry of Aerosmith, stayed and chatted for the entire evening. Famed author Stephen Davis made an appearance, as did Lt. Gov. Paul Cellucci (yes, he does look like DeNiro) and Herald gossip Laura Raposa. If only they could all vote at town meeting.